

NDEO Student Conference Scholarships for 2022

Deadline to Apply is July 26, 2022

NDEO is proud to offer annual scholarships to dance or dance education college students pursuing an associates, undergraduate or graduate degree in dance or dance education to help defray the costs associated with attending NDEO's 2022 (in-person) Annual National Conference in Atlanta, Georgia. For more conference information go to www.ndeo.org/conf2022.

For the 2022 National Conference, NDEO will offer TWO undergraduate students and TWO graduate students a scholarship package consisting of one year of NDEO membership, free conference registration, and a $300 check.

New this year for all NDEO Scholarships and Awards, NDEO Members and Non-Members are eligible to apply and we have doubled the number of scholarships from 2 to 4.

Applicants need to: Be currently enrolled full-time in a dance or dance education degree program at public or private college or university, junior / community college, or conservatory (post high school). Or have just graduated in 2022 from one of these institutions.

Online Application Details

- Basic contact and demographic information including:
 - Your name, address, phone and e-mail address
 - The name and location of your school
 - The name of your program/department director or chair
 - Your status as a full-time student (AA, BA, BFA, MA, MFA, etc.) with expected graduation date
- Type in a summary of why you are applying for this award / scholarship
- Upload a Letter of Recommendation from faculty or professor
- Type in a summary of your current involvement in the dance field and at your school, your academic or artistic achievement while in school, any involvement with NDEO, and your professional/career goals. (500 words maximum)

Evaluation Criteria:

- Show exceptional promise in dance or dance education (scholarship and/or teaching in the field, etc.)
- Plan a future in dance or dance education
- Are enrolled in a degree granting program on a full-time basis or just graduated from a degree granting institution (typically 12 or more credit hours in current semester)
- Offer evidence of leadership in NDEO (student representation, student chapters, state affiliates, honor society (NHSDA))
- Did not receive a student conference scholarship in prior years
- Current NDEO Student Rep Board Members are not eligible for this award/scholarship.

The deadline for applying is July 26, 2022.